YAMADA SHIHAN

Yoshimitsu Yamada Shihan has been a direct student of Aikido founder Morihei Ueshiba for more than ten years. Assigned to New York City in 1964 by the Hombu Dojo (the Aikido World Headquarters in Tokyo), is today an 8th degree black belt in Aikido and the Chief Instructor of the New York Aikikai. Yamada Sensei is known for his clear and strong basic techniques, as well as for his vibrant personality and generous spirit. He has dedicated his life to the dissemination of Aikido and his seminars are well attended throughout the world. Currently he is the Chairman of the Board of the United States Aikido Federation and the Latin American Aikido Federation. The Associazione AIKO is delighted to invite him this year for the Second Autumn International Seminar.
